Any knowing violation of an order awarding parental responsibility (formerly custody) or physical care of a child or care of a child or prohibiting removal or concealment of a child may be a crime. Any willful violation of any order is contempt of court.

This Order of Protection is enforceable with notice to the Respondent, even without registration, in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, tribal lands, and the U.S. Territories pursuant to the Violence Against Women Act (18 U.S.C. § 2265). A person may be an adult with disabilities for purposes of this Act even though he or she has never been adjudicated an incompetent adult. However, no court proceeding may be initiated or continued on behalf of an adult with disabilities over that adult's objection, unless such proceeding is approved by his or her legal guardian, if any.
3. Elder adult with disabilities means an adult prevented by advanced age from taking appropriate action to protect himself or herself from abuse by a family or household member.
4. Exploitation means the illegal, including tortious, use of a high-risk adult with disabilities or of the assets or resources of a high-risk adult with disabilities. Exploitation includes, but is not limited to, the misappropriation of assets or resources of a high-risk adult with disabilities by undue influence, by breach of a fiduciary relationship, by fraud, deception, or extortion, or the use of such assets or resources in a manner contrary to law.

For purposes of this paragraph, neither a casual acquaintanceship nor ordinary fraternization between 2 individuals in business or social contexts shall be deemed to constitute a dating relationship. In the case of a high-risk adult with disabilities, "family or household members" includes any person who has the responsibility for a high-risk adult as a result of a family relationship or who has assumed responsibility for all or a portion of the care of a high-risk adult with disabilities voluntarily, or by express or implied contract, or by court order.
6. Harassment means knowing conduct which is not necessary to accomplish a purpose that is reasonable under the circumstances; would cause a reasonable person emotional distress; and does cause emotional distress to the petitioner.   - b. repeatedly telephoning petitioner's place of employment, home or residence;
  - c. repeatedly following petitioner about in a public place or places;

  - f. threatening physical force, confinement or restraint on one or more occasions.

  - e. the failure to protect a high-risk adult with disabilities from health and safety hazards.

Nothing in subsection 10 shall be construed to impose a requirement that assistance be provided to a high-risk adult with disabilities over his or her objection in the absence of a court order, nor to create any new affirmative duty to provide support to a high-risk adult with disabilities.
11. Petitioner may mean not only any named petitioner for the order of protection and any named victim of abuse on whose behalf the petition is brought, but also any other person protected by this Act.
12. Physical abuse includes sexual abuse and means any of the following:
  - a. knowing or reckless use of physical force, confinement or restraint;
  - b. knowing, repeated and unnecessary sleep deprivation; or
  - c. knowing or reckless conduct which creates an immediate risk of physical harm.
13. Stalking means a person knowingly engages in a course of conduct directed at a specific person, and they know or should know that this course of conduct would cause a reasonable person to fear for their safety or the safety of a third person; or suffer other emotional distress.
